

EAA MINUTES

Chapter 206

June 21, 2018

The meeting took place at the meeting room at the Yakima Airpark. There were 18 members attending.

- I President Stu Copeland called the meeting to order at 7:00pm.
- II The business meeting was postponed until after the evening's program.
- III The program was presented by Mr. Tim Gibson. He described his 14-year project designing and building his G-1 airplane. After his presentation we all were invited outside to see his creation.
- IV Stu then reconvened the meeting.
- V Mike Bull asked that a correction to the May minutes be made. The correction was that the $50/month payment be separated from the raffle proceeds for meeting room expenses. A motion was made by Lance Sorenson to accept last month's corrected minutes and seconded by Paul Zeimetz. The motion passed.
- VI Mike Bull, treasurer, reported that the bank account has $---. Last month's breakfast had a gross revenue of $557.00 with 92 people being served. Profit from the breakfast was approximately $200.00.
- VII The Secretary was directed to send Stu the address data for Don Rasmussen.
- VIII John Estep suggested that applications for membership be displayed in the magazine rack on the north wall of the meeting room.
- IX Old business involved Marv Pugh assembling and welding the kiosk as discussed in the previous minutes. He may need volunteer help.
- X New business included:
  - A. There will be no meeting in July and the August meeting will be the annual ice cream social and reports from those who attended the Oshkosh convention.
  - B. June 30th will have a fly-out in Richland.
  - C. Paul Zeimetz is going on a flying camping trip on June 30th and invited anyone interested to go with him.
  - D. John Estep is again offering for the 14th year his computer language course. He is expanding the course to include college age students. The course will start in September and will meet one night a week for the school year. There is no cost to attend.
- XI The raffle was won by Jim Bell with ticket number 346203. He won $19 from a revenue of $37.
- XII The meeting was adjourned at 8:26pm.
