

MINUTES
Chapter 206
January 21, 2016

The meeting took place at Cubcrafters at the corner of Washington and 16th Avenue in Yakima, Washington. There were approximately 60 people present including about 12 young adults and some of their parents. This group of young people were from the Junior ROTC program from West Valley High School and sponsored by Sanford Reims. The president of Cubcrafters, Randy Lervold, welcomed all those present to their facility and invited all those present to partake of the cookies and hor'dourves.

- I Lance Sorensen, Co-President of the chapter, then brought the business meeting to order.
- II The minutes of the last meeting were announced as being published on our web sight. A motion to accept the minutes as published was made and seconded. The motion passed.
- III Marv Pugh, Treasurer, gave his report which gave a total of $3230.45 in our bank account. A motion was made to accept this report. The motion was seconded and passed.
- IV Lance continued the meeting with old business.
 - A. The Christmas dinner was a great success.
 - B. There are 3 calendars left. So far there have been 30 calendars sold.
- V The meeting then continued with new business.
 - A. Chapter member's dues were due at the end of the meeting. The ROTC members present were given applications for chapter membership and their dues were taken care off.
 - B. The chapter-meeting program in February will be on the ADS-B requirement coming on January 1, 2020.
 - C. Lance reminded all those present about the NW Aviation Trade Show in Puyallup on February 20. A sign up sheet was made available. The cost is $35.00/participant. For those attending, a bus will leave the Sears parking lot at 7:00am and stop in Ellensburg to pick up their chapter members wishing to attend. The ticket includes breakfast served on the bus. Payment is due a week before the event. If spouses come along and if they wish to go, the bus will take them to the mall.
 - D. Brian Thompson introduced a 92-year-old pilot who served in World War II.
 - E. Stu Copeland, News Letter Editor, requested that address changes be given to him.
- VI The meeting was adjourned.
- VII The program for the evening was given by Cubcrafter guides giving tours of the facility. They also made an announcement that they will provide one of their airplanes for use in a flying club that is open to their facility employees as well as to the public.

Submitted by Secretary, Dennis L. Franz

